It was a similar yarding, with the plainer quality and condition reflecting the recent cold and wet conditions. There were mostly older 2 score lambs on offer, with very few prime trade lots available, although heavy and extra heavy weights in good condition were present in small numbers.

The market tend on the plainer quality was firm to cheaper. There were limited numbers of light lambs suitable for restockers, although a good line of first cross ewe lambs met strong competition to make $128/head. Light 1 and 2 score lambs weighing up to 16kg made from $58 to $85, while the 16kg to 18kg light processing lots were from $86 to $98/head. Trade weights ranged from $92 to $118 and heavy weights were from $115 to $140/head. A small but well finished selection of extra heavy weights over 26kg ranged from $130 to $167/head. Most of the lambs averaged 500c to 525c/kg cwt.

A handy selection of heavy wethers stood out in an otherwise mixed run of mutton. Prices held steady for light 2 score ewes and they made from $45 to $66, while medium and heavy weights sold between $72 and $125/head. Merino wethers reached $108/head for most of the better covered sheep to average 300c to 370c/kg cwt.
