

LOTSA LAMBS – Improving reproduction success

Producer Demonstration Site – Workshop 3

 Friday 9 June 2023 | 9.00am – 12.00pm

 Lachie Smart's farm – 98 Avonmore Road, Wirrabara SA

Morning tea and lunch provided

What's on the agenda?

Deb Scammell – Talking Livestock

- Weaning process
- Weaner growth targets
- Weaner nutrition and maximising spring feed
- Successful breeders from weaners

Will Van Weterre – Adelaide University

- Managing heat stress in sheep
- The benefits of using vitamins and melatonin (Regulin) to improve the productivity of sheep during periods of heat
- Results from producers in the Upper North

Colin Trengove – Pro Ag Consulting

- Strategies to optimise weaner health
- Preventing worms and other common challenges

Plus:

Stickybeak at Lachie Smart's yards and small paddocks for containment feeding and lambing in small mobs.

This event is funded by Meat & Livestock Australia (MLA) with the support of:

This project is supported by the Northern & Yorke Landscape Board as part of the Living Flinders program through funding from the Australian Government's National Landcare Program.

RSVP and more information:

Rachel Trengove

P: 0438 452 003 E: rachel@unfs.com.au