

13th ANNUAL CONFERENCE

8.30am TUESDAY 23rd AUGUST 2022
Ararat Town Hall – Barkly St Ararat

Cracking on from Covid “Farming on a High”.

Latest innovations from UNE Smart Farms: Dr Rachelle Hergenhan, University of New England

Latest research topics from NSW: Should we sow legumes with grazing cereals? Serradellas for permanent pasture environments, Managing acid soils; Richard Hayes, NSW Dept of Primary Industries, Wagga Wagga

Farm inputs costs; short & medium term outlook: Matt Dalgleish & Andrew Whitelaw, Thomas Elder Markets

Sheep Meat Promotion & DEXA Technology Incentives: Laura Garland, MLA

PPS Feed Quality Project; results & action: Jess Revell; Rumenate Livestock Services

Putting It Together On Farm: Chad Taylor, Mumblebone Merinos, Wuuluman NSW

Presenter Panel; Facilitated by Charlie de Fegely

PPS Conference Tour – A.F. Gason, Ararat

Annual Dinner and Meeting; Ararat RSL; 74 – 76 High St Ararat, 6 pm (Dinner must be pre booked; Dinner & Drinks purchased on the night)

Guest Speaker: Simon Quilty; International Meat Market Analyst; “Tremble & Obey”; stories of international travel.

Conference only (includes seminar, conference book, morning tea, lunch & tour)

PPS members - $50 (membership includes anyone involved in member enterprise). Agricultural Students; $0
Non-members - $75 (new members can join on the day & receive member rate. PPS annual membership $66)

Book on Trybooking; <https://www.trybooking.com/CBKBR> or search trybooking for Perennial Pasture Systems
Alternatively RSVP to PPS by Friday 19th August & pay by cheque or Square Reader at door; NO CASH

Further information contact PPS Project Manager Rob Shea – 0438 521357, yadin@netconnect.com.au

The PPS Conference is supported by

