

P.PIP.0435- Oakey Abattoir Paunch Drying & Re-use

This project was to evaluate the CST slurry press technology for dewatering paunch to ensure that the technology produces acceptable (35%) moisture content with paunch waste consistently. This technology could enable paunch waste to be used directly as a boiler fuel.

However the partner decided to terminate the project before it commenced.