CONFERENCE PROGRAM

In-person
+ Remote
Attendance

MerinoLink invites all of industry to join us in Wagga Wagga NSW for a conference featuring the latest Merino information and developments presented by a broad spectrum of key industry presenters.

The 2021 conference program runs from Wednesday June 16 through to Friday June 18 and includes a lead-in session followed by a meet and greet dinner at The Thirsty Crow (153 Fitzmaurice Street), a full conference day and formal conference dinner at The Range Function Centre (308 Copland Street), followed by a field day across multiple venues.

Throughout the proceedings a mentoring program will introduce new, young industry members and provide them with conference mentors. Apply to the Hour of Power to be involved in this collaborative program.

Registered attendees will be kept updated on conference details, including any program changes.

Registration for all sessions via 2021merinolinkconference.eventbrite.com.au

Remote Attendance is available for Thursday's Conference session.

Sheep Genetics breeder's updates

Kick off the MerinoLink conference early by getting updated on the exciting developments for Sheep Genetics members.

MERINOSELECT Development Officer, Emma McCrabb will discuss:

- New reproduction traits – a year on from introduction
- Updates in the analysis to handle more genomics
- How major projects will help more breeders use genetic information

We welcome you to come along to catch up with the Sheep Genetics team before the main MerinoLink agenda.

MerinoLink welcomes you to Wagga for our 2021 Conference.

Join us for a drink & stay on to purchase your choice of dinner. A great opportunity to meet fellow conference attendees & join Mark Mortimer (aka Twitter's @sheepgeek) in a dinner conversation about social media for sheep's-sake.
