

AGRICULTURE VICTORIA

2019 East Gippsland Beef Conference

Bairnsdale

The East Gippsland Beef Conference connects producers and service providers with innovative farming practices, market analysis and forecasts, and industry research.

WHEN:

13 August 2019

WHERE:

Bairnsdale Sporting and Convention Centre

FULL PROGRAM AND TICKETS

<https://tinyurl.com/2019EGBC>

COST:

$60 farmers for the first person, $40 for additional people from the same business

$120 for non-farmers e.g. agribusiness, government

$30 students

$60 Dinner, St Mary's Hall, Pyke St Bairnsdale

More Information

For further information, please see the Agriculture Victoria website

<https://tinyurl.com/BetterBeef19>

Alternatively contact Craig Bush, event manager, on 0427 943 155 or chatswortheast@activ8.net.au

TOPICS AND SPEAKERS WILL INCLUDE:

Market analysis – Rob Herrmann (Mecardo) and Simon Quilty (MLX)

Setting up the farm for different seasons – Neil Moss (Scibus)

Herd rebuilding after a tough season – Rob Inglis (Elders)

Innovation in a beef enterprise - Michael Crowley, (Meat and Livestock Australia)

Driving pasture production - Nick Linden (Agriculture Victoria)

Parasite resistant cattle - Dr Stephanie Bullen (Veterinarian, Maffra)

Understanding finances and succession planning – Claire Osborn-Booth (Nuffield Scholar)

Producer panel: Tactics in tough times – Producers sharing their experience of what worked and what didn't during the drought

The value and benefits of a breeding objective - Jason Trompf (JT Agri-Source).

On-farm adaptation to climate variability - Brendan Cullen (University of Melbourne)

Major Sponsors

