

SALC LIVESTOCK ADVISOR UPDATE PROGRAM

SUBJECT TO CHANGE

14th August 2019

The SALC LAU kicks off with a networking dinner at the Moseley Bar + Kitchen, Glenelg. Join us for dinner from 6:30pm!

15th August 2019

8:30–10:50am: Plenary session

8:30–8:35	Welcome	Melissa Rebbeck, SALC LAU Coordinator
8:35–9:20	MLA R&D projects update	Christine Purdy and Mick Taylor, MLA
9:20–10:05	AWI R&D projects update	Emily King, AWI
10:05–10:50	Marketing and communication for your business	Julie White, Tocal Agricultural College
10:50–11:20	Morning tea
11:20am–12:40pm: Concurrent sessions
	Disease updates		Technology and the future
11:20–11:50	Enhanced Abattoir Surveillance program update	Dr Torben Nielsen, University of Adelaide	Technology in red meat supply chain integrity systems	Andrew Skinner, Integrity Systems Co.
11:50–12:20	Major livestock diseases update	Dr Ryan O'Handley, University of Adelaide	AWI Sheep and blowfly RD&E Update	Bridget Peachey, AWI
12:20–12:40	Government vets– how can we work better with you?	Dr Jeremy Rogers, PIRSA	The cost effectiveness of eID	Hamish Dickson, AgriPartner Consulting
12:40–1:40	Lunch
1:40–3:10pm: Concurrent sessions
	Whole farm management		Reproduction and genetics
1:40–2:25	Regenerative farming	Deane Belfield, Regenerative Australian Farmers	Realised and future outcomes of Merino Lifetime Productivity	Geoff Lindon, AWI
2:25–3:10	Helping clients make better decisions	Cam Nicholson, Nicon Rural Services	The future of genetics research and development	Clara Bradford, MLA
3:10–3:40	Afternoon tea
3:40–5:00pm: Plenary session
3:40–4:20	Technology display speed dating	Various companies
4:20–4:50	Issues and opportunities for the livestock sector– facilitated panel discussion session with MLA and AWI	Chris Scheid, ProAdvice
4:50–5:00	Feedback, evaluation and farewell	Meg Bell, SALC LAU Coordinator

