

NLIS Database Management

Online training sessions

March – June 2021

AGRICULTURE VICTORIA

EVENT DETAILS

Would you like to learn how to use the NLIS database and your responsibilities as a livestock owner or manager?

Agriculture Victoria is delivering interactive online training sessions for livestock producers using the National Livestock Identification System (NLIS) database. There are four events for you to choose from, between March and June.

Participants will learn about the Victorian traceability system, tour the NLIS database features and how to complete a Property to Property (P2P) transfer.

SESSION PLAN

Part 1: Overview of the Victorian traceability system

- Self-paced online learning

Part 2: Navigating and using the NLIS database

- Watch a live demonstration of the NLIS database over a Zoom meeting.
- Access the training NLIS database to practise completing Property to Property (P2P) transfers.
- Question and Answer session.
